3. Module description
Description	Students in conversation class develop their speaking ability in English at level CAE/CPE-C1, improve the fluency of their speech, their correctness and their accent. Students are also engaged in interactive exercises of communicative skills. During class, particular emphasis is placed upon the development of vocabulary, especially that connected with particular disciplines and (due to the prepared topics) the students' increased cultural and linguistic awareness. During lessons, attention is also paid to the proper interpretation of linguistic transmissions, and students should practice presenting views based upon their own acquired general knowledge. In the course of the lesson the instructor may utilize various kinds of themes, which can assist in the course of discussion, engage the students to participate actively, and help them to further develop their own interests.
Prerequisites	Evaluation of module 1 and 2 Knowledge of English on the level CAE+ Ability to seek out and make use of various sources of information (English-language websites, newspapers, other periodicals)

Ability to make use of different dictionaries, lexicons and encyclopedias
 Ability to work individually and in groups

4. Assessment of the learning outcomes of the module

code	type	description	learning outcomes of the module
NA-N2PNJA2-KW-3_w_1	In-class speaking	The student should prepare for lessons by reading the texts assigned by the instructor, and/or becoming familiar with audio material recommended by the instructor, and then should participate actively in the class. Students are assessed in a continuous fashion on the basis of participation – shorter or longer responses, active engagement in tasks, and preparation for the class.
